A Challenge to Our Churches

"Train up a child in the way he should go" . . . "As for me and my house we will serve the Lord . . ."

Statistics point up the grim truth that the American home is breaking down. Divorce statistics are high and juvenile delinquency is showing a sharp increase. It is with more than interest that one reads J. Edgar Hoover's statement that lack of church and Sunday school training is a major factor in producing more delinquency.

The Juvenile Protection Program has steadily advocated the role of the local church in preventing delinquency. The program has been training leaders and guiding churches for ministries to meet needs of the children and families. Providing wholesome recreational outlets for children and families is a part of this emphasis. Learning to play together is many times a key to learning to stay together. This many times is the step that also teaches a family to pray together.

Our churches must be alert to the needs in their neighborhoods. One of the greatest needs is family counseling. The church interested in the whole family will always find avenues of ministry. Let the word of Joshua, "As for me and my house," be the challenge of the church to the American Family. Then the challenge to the family can be, "Train up the child . . ."

THE LAYMAN by Edgar Guest

Leave it to the ministers, and soon the church will die;
Leave it to the womenfolk; the young will pass
it by;
For the church is all that lifts us from the
coarse and selfish job,
And the church that is to prosper needs the layman on the job.

Now, a layman has his business, and a layman
has his joys;
But he also has the training of his little girls and boys;
I wonder how he'd like it if there were no
churches here
And he had to raise his children in a godless atmosphere.

It's the church's special function to uphold
the finer things,
And to teach the way of living from which all
that's noble springs,
But the minister can't do it single-handed
and alone
For the laymen of the country are the church's corner-stone.

CALL TO WORSHIP

PRAAYER OF CONFESSTION

Unison: Almighty and most merciful Father; we have erred, and strayed from Thy ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against Thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; and we have done those things which we ought not to have done. But Thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us. Spare Thou, those O God, who confess their faults. Restore Thou those who are penitent; according to Thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for His sake; that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous and sober life, to the glory of Thy Holy Name. Amen.

The New Moderator

Dr. Albert Buckner Coe, new Moderator of the General Council of our churches, has been a leader in denominational work since the end of World War I. His family has supplied leaders in the Protestant ministry for five generations. On a national level Dr. Coe has served the Congregational Church as a member of the Executive Committee of General Council and as National Chairman of the Congregational Committee for War Victims and Reconstruction. He is a member of the Prudential Committee of the American Board and minister and president of the Massachusetts Conference.

Two sons, the Rev. Buckner Coe and the Rev. Chalmers Coe are Congregational ministers as well as two brothers, Dr. Robert W. and the Rev. M. Walker Coe.

A Prayer for Labor Day

Father, we thank thee for honest work which provides us with the means for buying our daily bread, and for the opportunity to serve a useful purpose to mankind. Help us to recognize in our work our dependence upon others; help us to be conscious of the seriousness of life so that our every-day conduct will reflect our Christian faith before our co-workers. Grant us pleasure and pride in our labors, and a sense of harmony with thee as we perform our duties. Give us strength and peace. Amen.

* * *

I believe that each of us has a mission to perform so long as he lives. It is to take the foundation God gives us at birth, and . . . by discipline, by such light as we let into our souls, such reason as we cultivate, . . . by consciously lifting ourselves to the spiritual summits achieved by God and his good people and thus strengthen ourselves to give something more than just our labor and material accomplishments, we will have made something that can be measured as good in the sight of our God.

Louis B. Seltzer

Industry Pauses for Prayer

Services are held in this refinery each Thursday, in the shop where the men will resume their work. It matters not that the pulpit is a temporary stand set up between machinery; the Bible and an opportunity to pray are appreciated during the pause in a busy day. From these services men are led to perceive a purpose in life.

For the toilers on the farm, for the sailors on the sea, for the miners' strength of arm we shall ever thankful be. Lord of all, for them we raise, this our hymn of grateful praise.

COMMANDER'S MESSAGE

Sir Knight: The Templar year is now ending and a new one is about to begin. It has been a pleasure-filled experience to have served as your Commander for the past term. I wish to thank you and every Sir Knight who has contributed to the success of the past year, and it is with deep regret that I come to the end of my term. As I step down I can have no other feeling than this, that Newburyport Commandery is indeed fortunate in its election of Officers for the next term and I take this opportunity to wish them and you a happy and successful year.

Fraternally,

FRANK M. HARGRAVES
